

The ZONTA Club of Washington DC is a chapter of Zonta International.

Founded in 1919, Zonta International is a global service organization of executives in business and the professions working together, across political and social boundaries, to advance the status of women worldwide with nearly 33,000 members in 1,254 clubs in 67 countries.

Zonta International members volunteer their time, talents and money to local and international service programs, as well as scholarship and award programs aimed at furthering women's education, leadership and youth development.

The Zonta Club of Washington DC provides several scholarships to women attending local universities and participates in local service projects as well as those designated by Zonta International.

The Washington DC Zontians listed below have made contributions in support of this year's 2004 Holiday Card.
